

its Tributaries of the House of Delegates, to whom said resolution was referred, be and they are hereby empowered and requested to communicate with the Joint Committee named in said resolution of the State of Maryland on the subject of said resolution, and to determine upon such time as may be convenient to receive said Joint Committee for the purposes set forth therein.

Agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia,
February 11th, 1892.

J. BELL BIGGER,
C. H. D. & K. of R., of Va.

February 15th, 1892.

Which were read.

JOINT RESOLUTION.

By the General Assembly of Maryland continuing the Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Delegates heretofore appointed, and authorizing the said committee to confer with a similar committee from the Legislature of Virginia during the recess of this General Assembly.

Whereas, The General Assembly of Maryland, now in session assembled, has passed a Joint Resolution appointing a Joint Committee to visit the Legislature of Virginia and confer with that body in relation to the proper legislation concerning the taking of oysters, fish and crabs in the waters of the Potomac and Pocomoke, and other matters germane thereto as set forth in the said resolution, and requesting to know the will of the Legislature of Virginia as to the time at which it would be agreeable to that Body to receive the said Joint Committee of Maryland.

And Whereas, A copy of said resolution was duly communicated to the Legislature of Virginia through His Excellency, the Governor of this State;

And Whereas, The General Assembly of Virginia, by Joint Resolution, passed February 15th, 1892, referred the Joint Resolution of the General Assembly of this State to the Committee of Fish and Game of the Senate, and the Committee on the Chesapeake and its Tributaries of the House of Delegates of the State of Virginia, with power and request